

PRO-Formal Research Tools – Questionnaire

Project: PRO-Formal Funder: EC Object: Research Tools – Questionnaire Target: PRO-Formal webpage

Note: This is a general sample questionnaire. Questionnaires have been adapted and translated to reflect the specific conditions of each country

MARKET..... DATE.....

Daily (once a week) data collection for timber sellers in depots

Name of seller:

• Stocks and fluxes of timber in the depot

Product	Dimensions W x L x H (cm)	Timber species	Number bought	Buying price	Origin (village or depot, province, region)	Number sold	Selling price	Typology of buyer (private or business – furniture, infrastructure etc.)
Plank	600 x 30 x 5	Iroko	200	2500	Village Y	340	3000	housing
Plank	600 x 30 x 5	Ayous	150	2000	Village K	0	-	-
Formwork	200 x 15 x 2	Iroko	0	0	-	50	1500	private

Legend:

Product: this is the typology of product, as known by the local market (each country will likely have different names) Dimensions: these are the dimensions of the given product (width, length, height in centimetres or metres) Timber species: the vernacular or local name of the species (please also compile a correspondence table with the scientific name) Number bought: the number of pieces bought (of the product and species indicated in the same line) on the day of data collection Buying price: the price paid by the depot seller to buy the product on the day of data collection Origin: the origin of the product, to the best knowledge of the seller (if the village is known, or only the depot, or the region) Number sold: the number of pieces sold (of the product and species indicated in the same line) on the day of data collection Selling price: the selling price of the product on the day of data collection Typology of buyer: the typology of buyer, if known, e.g. private customer, furniture maker, building company, etc.